POEMS

(from the cycle “THE ONE THAT I SHOULD BE “)

My words
Shout inside me
Like the sounds of a piano
On which I have fallen
Afraid of a dream

Me...
The life....
I was floating
And someone
Was holding my hand
Above
The chaos!

I don't know what made me today
Resemble to a violet tree
In blossom
Having green and blue flowers
And it seemed that
Through each leaf
The wind was whispering me
The word
Whose meaning
I could not utter.

Author VICTORIA DUTU Takes Gabriel At The Miami Book Fair 2018

MIAMI, FLORIDA, UNITED STATES, October 30, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The books are definitely coming to downtown Miami as the nation's finest literary festival, the Miami Book Fair International holds its annual celebration. This eight-day literary party will commence on November 11 with over a hundred-thousand readers and writers in attendance. Distinguished authors from the United States and other parts of the globe, as well as book lovers, will be gracing the Fair and its many activities.

Formerly known as “Books by the Bay”, the Miami Book Fair was founded in 1984 by Miami-Dade College. The growth and success of the very first event which took place in the same year were endeavored by Miami-Dade College in cooperation with the Miami-Dade Public Library System, Wolfson Campus President, Eduardo J. Padron, and local independent bookstore owners Mitchell Kaplan of Books & Books and Craig Pollock of BookWorks. The team had reached their success during the 90’s, when the two-day street fair grew steadily and became the largest literary festival in the country, thus acquiring its well-earned name, Miami Book Fair.

AuthorCentrix celebrates its second year as one of the exhibitors at the Fair. The company will be gracing the event with Victoria Dutu and the English Edition of her Contemporary piece –Gabriel. This year at the Fair, she brings to the readers, another over-the-top novel about conquering every challenge. A chance for one-to-one Author Interview and Book Signing with Dutu await everyone!

Victoria Dutu makes a comeback in the literary scene with an English Edition of her Contemporary, Gabriel. The novel relates to love, inspired by the author’s history. Compelling, edifying and stirring – the powerful characters in the story are relatable as they conquer life’s challenges thrown at them. Dutu’s piece is a reminder that often what feels like the end of the world is really a trail to a far better place.

The Festival will bring over hundreds of renowned national and international exhibitors together as it continues to become a model for other fairs across the country. Events and activities include the Street Fair, book signings, live music, workshops, and readings and discussions with notable authors from both, the U.S., and from around the world. The Miami Book Fair 2018 invites the book lovers to join the annual celebration, as it remains to uphold the cognizance of reading ability and literary arts in the city’s multi-ethnic community, making it the nation’s undisputable, finest literary festival!
